HISTORY OF COMPANY 4792

Company 4792 was organized at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas on October 10, 1936, by Ed. C. McNamara, 1st. Lt. Cav-Res., as one of the units in CCC mobilization for that period. After eight days of conditioning in the Fort Leavenworth Re-Conditioning Camp this new company entrained for Camp BR-12, Huntsville, Utah. The company, 150 strong, commanded by Lt. Ed. C. McNamara, arrived in Ogden, Utah, on October 20th., and were transported to the camp at Huntsville by Technical Service trucks.

At the present time there remain the following officer and members of the original company 4792: Ed. C. McNamara, 1st. Lt. Cav-Res., Commanding and enrollees: Kenneth Muffitt, Ray Scott, Zane Young, Harry Justice, Ray Oyer, Albert Cooksey, Hobart Knox, Richard Fox, Gene Moran, Clyde Sutton, Freddie Alexander, Clyde Garten, and Merideth Lawson.

In its period of establishment the company maintained its enrollee personnel by absorbing members of disbanded companies 4778 Escalante, 4794 Manila, 3776 Salina, Utah, and Company 730 Alpine, Idaho. The present enrollee personnel is composed of boys from Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, and North Dakota.

During the fourteen month period, while stationed at Huntsville, Utah, the members were occupied in reclamation projects in the Ogden canyon and surrounding vicinity. Prominent projects completed consisted of clearing the Pine View Dam basin, constructing parapet wall and dam at Hyrum, Utah, and riprapping water canals.

On October 11, 1937 an advance cadre was dispatched from Huntsville to the new camp BR-64 site at Heber, Utah, to construct the camp buildings here. The camp construction was completed and officially occupied by Company 4792 on December 20, 1937.

The organization includes at the present time: Ed. C. McNamara, 1st. Lt. Cav-Res. Commanding, who has been with the company since its inception at Fort Leavenworth. William J. Blair, 1st. Lt. Inf-Res., Mess Officer, who transferred from Company 4778 Escalante to Huntsville on October 20, 1937. R.N. Jiacoletti, Educational Adviser, who was assigned to Company 4792 at Huntsville on October 30, 1937. Dr. K.O. Nielson, part-time Contract Surgeon, whose services were procured on December 22, 1937.

The Bureau of Reclamation staff includes Mr. R. Brinkman, Camp Superintendent since the attachment of the Company at Huntsville. Willard England, R. Elroy Thurston, and Lloyd E. Hardy, foremen. Richard G. Tatton, Junior Assistant Technician. Leo Moorman, tractor operator. Alex E. Anderson, mechanic-welder. Edwin L. Parker and Barton E. Jones, carpenters. Ivan E. Beaudoin, Cliff A. Wilkinson, and James E. Thurston, Junior Facilitating personnel.
